The users can log in to the system using their employment ID and password. They will be redirected to the homepage where they will be provided with two features that is view result and add student. In view result, they will be able to view the results and details of preciously added students. In add students they can add the student details including their marks. They aggregate of the marks will be calculated right after they entered the details. The teachers can also edit the details if they have made mistake.